

Nada has worked in the field of literacy for more than 20 years facilitating, coordinating and developing several CanLearn literacy programs. She has also had opportunities to facilitate numerous professional development sessions.

She coordinated Family Literacy Regional Network Coordinator for six years and Foundations in Family Literacy Program Instructor at the Vancouver Community College for two years.

Amanda has joined the CanLearn Literacy Team in 2016.

She sees herself as an agent of positive change in the lives of adult foundational learners and approaches her work with deep commitment and motivation. Currently, Amanda facilitates the Reading Connections and Taking Charge Programs.

Andrew has joined the CanLearn Literacy Team in 2016.

Andrew believes that it is never too late to start learning. His practice is motivated by seeing his adult foundational learners succeed, and reach their learning goals. Currently, Andrew facilitates the Reading Connections and Taking Charge Programs.

Elizabeth has joined the CanLearn Literacy Team in 2015.

Elizabeth is committed to working with families with children 0-5 years of age in a variety of community settings. Currently, Elizabeth facilitates the Magic Carpet Ride Programs.

Gwen volunteered with the Share the Magic Program for five years before becoming the staff in 2015.

Gwen is equally passionate about her work with learners and volunteers. Currently, she coordinates the WordPlay Afterschool Reading Program and Share the Magic. She is passionate about her work as a literacy coordinator for programs with young children.

Jayne has been a part of every literacy program at CanLearn for almost twenty years.

A literacy practitioner, Jayne's greatest satisfaction comes from knowing how she helps the learners in her programs to reach their goals. Currently, Jayne works with learners in the Magic Carpet Ride, Taking Charge, Reading Connections and Learning Starts at Home Programs.

Kim joined the CanLearn literacy team in 2006.

Kim's passion is offering opportunity and encouragement to child and adult learners. Currently, she facilitates the Learning Starts at Home Program and supports the Magic Carpet Ride Program.

Lori has worked in the field of family literacy for more than 15 years.

Her passion and calling are working with families with young children, especially families who are new to Canada. Currently, Lori works with learners in the Learning Starts at Home Program.

Sandy has worked in the field of family literacy for more than 15 years.

She loves working with families with children 0-5 years of age at home and in group settings. Currently, Sandy works with learners in the Learning Starts at Home, Magic Carpet Ride and WordPlay Afterschool Reading Programs.

Sarah has joined the CanLearn Literacy Team in 2015.

She is passionate about equipping adult foundational learners with the tool they need to foster literacy in their families. Currently, Sarah facilitates the Learning Starts at Home Program and works with programs implemented in partnership with the Calgary Urban Project Society (CUPS).